

Application for a Licence to Sell Tobacco Products Tobacco Products Control Act 2006

Form TC1B

Application guide checklist – multiple premises

Important information for the applicant

This guide is to assist with the completion of this application form.

Check list

Age

A licence will not be issued to a person under 18 years of age.

Licence type – multiple premises

Application for licence

(a) Type of licence

- * Retail sale – which has the normal meaning of retail sale (includes sales from vending machines).
- * Indirect sale – where the seller and the purchaser are not in the same place at the same time e.g. sale by fax order, mail order, internet and telephone order.
- * Wholesale sale – where the sale is for the purpose of on selling.

(b) Multiple premises/applications

If you are applying for a licence for multiple premises then complete form TC1B.

Applicant information

1. Name of applicant

A licence can be issued to 2 types of applicants – individual or body corporate

* Individual

An individual is a sole trader or a person trading in partnership with one or more persons.

If the individual is conducting a business in partnership with one or more other persons, only one person should make the application.

For an individual, it is the name of an individual person who conducts a business as a sole trader or in partnership with one or more other persons.

e.g. (a) Thomas James Williams, a sole proprietor trading as Tom's Deli. The name of the applicant is Thomas James Williams. (b) Harold L Smith, Susan R Jones and Horace T Ball, partners trading as HSH Sales. The name of the applicant is any one of the persons in the partnership.

* Body corporate

A body corporate is a person who is an Australian public company, an Australian private company, an association or other incorporated or unincorporated entity.

(Note: For a body corporate you must provide a copy of the ASIC Extract of Company Officers)

For a body corporate, it is the legal entity's name that appears on all legal and official documents.

This name may be different to the trading name of the entity.

e.g. Joe Bloggs Pty Ltd as the Trustee for the Joe Bloggs Family Trust. The applicant is Joe Bloggs Pty Ltd. XYZ Pty Ltd, trading as XYZ Sales. The applicant is XYZ Sales Pty Ltd.

Suitability of applicant – individual and body corporate

2. Applicant must answer all questions (a) to (e)

A licence can only be issued to a person who is fit and proper to hold a licence. The applicant is required to answer "Yes" or "No" to all the questions listed on the application form.

WA Health will conduct random audits of licence applications to assess an applicant's probity which may require an applicant to provide a national criminal screening record.

If the applicant is an individual, the questions apply only to the individual, not any partners with whom that the applicant is in partnership.

For body corporates, the questions apply to all officers of the body corporate.

Under Question 3(b) and (c) "corresponding law" means a law of another Australian State or Territory or of the Commonwealth that corresponds to or has similar purposes to the Tobacco Products Control Act 2006.

If you answer yes to any of the questions in question 3 then the following information must be provided:

- (a) Criminal records relating to any conviction of the applicant;
- (b) Any decision in proceedings before a tribunal such as the State Administration Tribunal (SAT), to which the applicant has been party;
- (c) Any documents relating to pending charges or any other information that may be necessary to assist in assessing if the applicant is a fit and proper person to hold a licence.
