

Underwear bunting kit

This bunting can be used to draw attention to your activity and is a fun way to display key messages to the community. You can print multiple copies of this document to suit your needs and additional bunting kits in alternative designs can be accessed on our website.

The key messages featured in this Underwear bunting kit are:

- Make an appointment today.
- The Cervical Screening Test. More accurate. Less often.

Instructions:

1. You will need A4 paper, string or twine, a stapler or sticky tape, scissors, a colour printer and 15 minutes for construction time.
2. Print the desired number of bunting pieces on A4 paper.
3. Cut out the bunting pieces along the solid line.
4. Fold along the dotted line.
5. Cut your string to length allowing it to dip slightly in the middle.
6. Evenly space out your bunting pieces along the string, leaving space at the ends to secure the bunting in place.
7. Staple or tape the bunting pieces in place, securing the string behind the folded tab.
8. Hang up at your activity.
