Related forms:

- Form 4B – Extension of transport order can be used to extend a transport order when the person is being transported from a place outside a metropolitan area.

When police officer can carry out a transport order:

A transport order can only authorise a police officer instead of a transport officer to carry out the order if the practitioner or psychiatrist making the order is satisfied:

- that there is a significant risk of serious harm to the person being transported or to another person; or
- that — a transport officer will not be available to carry out the order within a reasonable time; and
— any delay in carrying out the order beyond that time is likely to pose a significant risk of harm to the person being transported or to another person (s149(2)).

Revocation of transport order:

- A medical practitioner or mental health practitioner may make an order revoking a transport order made in respect of a person if satisfied that the transport order is no longer needed (s154).
- If the transport order is made to take a referred person to the place of examination and the referral is revoked, the transport order is automatically revoked (s153).
